

Jennifer E. Aragon

Associate

Jennifer is an associate experienced in coverage and bad faith litigation.

She handles complex disputes arising from homeowner appraisals and automotive and commercial policies, including both commercial property and general liability policies.

Before becoming a lawyer, she spent a decade first as an adjuster, then a claims supervisor specializing in auto coverage liability/defense and concomitant first-party bad faith matters. For the first two years of law school, she remained working full time as a claims supervisor. Her perspective adjusting, resolving and managing claims for an insurance company has helped make her the efficient, pragmatic and wily insurance attorney she is today. Jen has the distinction of surely being one of the newest attorneys ever to be voted a Rising Star and Outstanding Young Lawyer (out of law school just two years).
