

Rishabh R. Agny

Of Counsel

Rishabh's practice focuses on representing insurance companies in coverage and extra-contractual matters and disputes, including defending first party claims of bad faith, breach of contract, negligence, and violations of Washington's Consumer Protection Act and the Insurance Fair Conduct Act.

Rishabh's recent experience handling high-exposure bad faith cases on a variety of insurance products on a national basis has primed him to focus that experience for insurers issuing policies in Washington.

In addition, Rishabh routinely advises clients on risk-transfer and management opportunities, including for contribution claims. He has extensive experience directing and handling coverage litigation over a variety of policies, including commercial general liability, commercial/fleet auto, homeowner, and excess.

Rishabh has recently relocated back to the Seattle area after a stint in Austin, Texas.
