Shareholder

Michael D. Handler provides expert guidance to insurance companies on first and third party insurance coverage analysis, as well as the defense of alleged bad faith in Washington, Oregon, and elsewhere around the country.

Michael's skilled analysis and pro-active consultation helps his clients to advance, and when necessary to successfully litigate, their positions on high-stakes first party and third party insurance claims and complex risks.

PRACTICE EMPHASIS AND EXPERIENCE

- Environmental Insurance Coverage
- Insurance Coverage Analysis & Litigation
- Professional Liability

RECOGNITION

- Northwest Insurance Coverage Association: Co-Chair and Chair, 2008 & 2009
- Super Lawyers – Rising Star 2008

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

- Represented professional liability insurer in mediations of underlying class actions, addressing significant coverage issues affecting the availability of insurance funds, and assessing the strength of each participant's positions, to achieve mutually agreed insurance-funding participation in global resolutions.
- Liability insurer's Motion to Dismiss granted on all coverage and extra-contractual claims, based on named insured and marital community issues.
- Obtained protective order in "insurance bad faith" lawsuit against all discovery of work product and/or privileged materials withheld from claim file production, including pre-litigation materials, without requiring their judicial in camera review.
