

Richard A. Levasseur Jr.

Associate

Richard's civil litigation practice focuses on the defense of general liability claims.

Richard obtained a B.A. from the University of Central Florida. After working in various industries, getting married, and growing a family, he attended Florida A&M University, College of Law for his law degree. During law school, he gained experience in tax, personal injury, and mediation. After law school, he worked criminal, administrative, and insurance law, attending numerous hearings and motions, managing administrative tasks, handling a significant caseload, and gaining trial experience.

PRACTICE EMPHASIS AND EXPERIENCE

- Advise corporate and individual clients
- Medicaid Fair Practices
- Personal Injury Protection (PIP)
- Insurance Advice
- General insurance liability
- Criminal defense

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

- As a young criminal defense attorney, Richard won immunity from prosecution for a client.
- Richard identified a recent piece of case law that he was able to use to assist in essentially dismantling the local probation system.
- Several 12(b)(6) in a variety of states

CONTACT

Main Phone: (206) 689-8500

Direct Phone: (206) 267-2267

RLevasseur@FoUm.law

EDUCATION

University of Central Florida, B.A.
Political Science.

Florida Agricultural and Mechanical
University, College of Law. Juris
Doctor.

BAR / COURT ADMISSIONS

State of Washington

State of Oregon

State of Florida

United States District Court, Western
District of Washington

United States District Court, Eastern
District of Washington

Richard A. Levasseur Jr.

Associate

PROFESSIONAL & CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- Washington State Bar Association.

ARTICLES & PRESENTATIONS

- “Liens and the liening lieners that lien them;
Everything you need to lien about Florida’s healthcare
liens.”